

GATEWAYS TO CONVERSION

Gateways to Conversion: The ministry of Christian initiation could be described as having three aspects: liturgical, catechetical, and pastoral. The RCIA, as restored by the Second Vatican Council, is a fundamentally liturgical process. It derives its power from the major and minor rites that so critically serve the Holy Spirit's work of conversion in souls. The catechetical and pastoral aspects of the RCIA process are to be at the service of the liturgical aspect.

This highly practical workshop will focus on how to use these rites effectively in the parish, how to prepare participants for them, and how to follow-up participants' experience of the immense graces offered in these liturgies. Sponsored by the Office of Divine Worship of the Archdiocese of Atlanta, it is open to all. Registration is $20 in advance or $25 at the door. Lunch is included for those registered at least one week in advance.

WILLIAM KEIMIG DIRECTOR, ASSOCIATION FOR CATECHUMENAL MINISTRY

Our presenter, William Keimig, serves as the Director of the Association for Catechumenal Ministry (ACM). This apostolate serves dioceses in the United States and other countries, as well as seminaries, in training clergy and laity how to implement RCIA successfully in parishes. This work takes him to numerous dioceses to do catechist training, alongside with the Association's many seminar presenters. Mr. Keimig holds a Master's Degree in Theology and Christian Ministry from Franciscan University in Steubenville, Ohio and a Certification in Catechetics. He also holds a BA in Government and Politics and a Master's Degree in Public Management from the University of Maryland. He and his wife, Heather, have four children, Rose, William, Julianna, and Theodore, and one more on the way.
